If given the choice, we would all choose to be less stressed, to feel happier, and to experience a more optimal state of wellbeing. So why are these outcomes so hard to achieve? The answer is quite simple. No one has taught us how. It turns out that just as you train your body for fitness, you can train your mind for wellbeing. We call this Life-Cross Training (LIFE.XT), and Share Here is the manual for anyone seeking to achieve emotional fitness.

Combining ancient wisdom with modern neuroscience from the world's leading experts, LIFE.XT is a groundbreaking training program to master the art of wellbeing. The program teaches practices proven to rewire the brain for increased focus, engagement, and resilience to stress. By offering specific practices, habits, and assessments to manage your training and by helping to build up core skills such as mindfulness, gratitude, and compassion, the authors provide a thorough and sustainable program that anyone can integrate into their daily lives.

Want to become less stressed, more emotionally fulfilled, and more in harmony with the world that surrounds you? Start here.

Eric Langshur, a seasoned corporate executive and entrepreneur, is the founder of Abundant Venture Partners. Years of research into the intersection of philosophy and neuroscience have established him as a thought leader in optimizing wellbeing.

Nate Klemp, PhD, is a Stanford Harvard Princeton-trained former philosophy professor and an expert in understanding how the tools of ancient and modern wisdom can be used to improve individual wellbeing.

They have founded Life-Cross Training together to foster a greater sense of wellbeing at work, home, and in all areas of life.
